How we can help

About Parent Partners

We understand this is an extremely difficult and overwhelming time in your life. We are here to:

- Help you understand the process of what is going on
- Help you move forward with the next step
- Offer resources for services in your community
- Stand beside you as a mentor and peer
- Attend meetings with you for support
- Help with transportation to and from meetings or appointments
- Connect you to other support groups

How we might help

Teaching new and acceptable ways of communication

Empowering families to be a proactive part of their case plan for future success

Our Commitment

Our goal and vision for Parent Partners is to help families see and utilize their strengths.

We are parents who have been in your situation, and want to offer our experience and share our knowledge of community resources available to help you.

A Parent Partner is completely optional and offered at no cost to parents involved with San Luis Obispo County Child Welfare Services.
